

Jamul House

Community Crisis Home

About Us

Jamul House is a crisis stabilization and assessment program for youth with developmental disabilities. It is a joint venture between Fred Finch Youth & Family Services and the San Diego Regional Center.

Eligibility

The program serves male and female clients, ages 12 through 17, that are in crisis, are Regional Center clients, and are approved for placement by the San Diego Regional Center.

Our Services

The program offers:

- crisis stabilization
- behavior modification
- clinical assessment
- brief treatment
- individual and family therapy
- discharge planning services

These stabilization services provide an opportunity for crisis intervention, the development of a comprehensive, individualized supports plan and appropriate after-care resources for each youth.

Contact
Jennifer Phillips,
619-797-1090

